

House Joint Resolution 11 - Introduced

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 11
BY HINSON and JONES

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

1 A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution
2 of the State of Iowa relating to the rights of a crime
3 victim.

4 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

1 Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of 2 the State of Iowa is proposed:

3 Article I of the Constitution of the State of Iowa is amended
4 by adding the following new section:

5 Sec. 26. Crime victims — rights. The victim of a 6 crime shall have the right to be treated with fairness and 7 dignity, with respect for their safety and privacy, and to be 8 informed of their rights under Iowa law. A victim includes 9 the immediate family members of a victim who died or was 10 rendered incompetent as a result of the offense or who was 11 under eighteen years of age at the time of the offense. The 12 rights of a victim as defined by the general assembly shall 13 not be denied or abridged by the state, secondary to the 14 constitutional rights of the defendant. Upon request, a victim
15 shall have the right to timely notice of and to be present
16 at proceedings related to the criminal offense; to be timely 17 notified, present, and heard at proceedings related to the 18 victim's rights and the defendant's sentencing, parole, and any 19 other disposition; to be timely notified of the defendant's 20 incarceration location, release, escape, furlough, move to 21 community corrections, work release, or death; to receive 22 a copy of the defendant's conditions of release; and to 23 restitution for pecuniary loss related to the crime. A victim 24 shall have the right to refuse an interview, deposition, or 25 other discovery request made by the defendant, the defendant's
26 counsel, or any person acting on behalf of the defendant. A
27 victim or a lawful representative of the victim has the right
28 to assert these rights in any court. This section shall not 29 provide grounds for a new trial for a defendant or any claim 30 for damages against the government or any officer, employee, or 31 agent of the government, or any governmental entity.

32 Sec. 2. REFERRAL AND PUBLICATION. The foregoing proposed 33 amendment to the Constitution of the State of Iowa is referred 34 to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general
35 election for members of the general assembly, and shall be

1 published as provided by law for three consecutive months
2 previous to the date of that election.

3 EXPLANATION

4 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 5 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

6 This joint resolution proposes an amendment to the 7 Constitution of the State of Iowa relating to the rights of a
8 crime victim.

9 The joint resolution specifies that the victim of a crime
10 shall have the right to be treated with fairness and dignity, 11 with respect for the victim's safety and privacy, and to be 12 informed of all their rights under Iowa law. A victim includes 13 the immediate family members of a victim who died, was rendered
14 incompetent as a result of the offense, or was under 18 years
15 of age at the time of the offense. The rights of a victim 16 as defined by the general assembly shall not be denied or 17 abridged by the state, secondary to the constitutional rights
18 of the defendant. Upon request, a victim shall have the right
19 to timely notice of and to be present at proceedings related 20 to the criminal offense; to be timely notified, present, and 21 heard at proceedings related to the victim's rights and the 22 defendant's sentencing, parole, and any other disposition; to 23 be timely notified of the defendant's incarceration location,
24 release, escape, furlough, move to community corrections, work
25 release, or death; to a copy of the defendant's conditions
26 of release; and to restitution for pecuniary loss related to 27 the crime. A victim has the right to refuse an interview,
28 deposition, or other discovery request made by the defendant,
29 the defendant's counsel, or any person acting on behalf of 30 the defendant. A victim or a lawful representative of the 31 victim has the right to assert these rights in any court. The 32 joint resolution shall not provide grounds for a new trial for 33 a defendant or any claim for damages against the government
34 or any officer, employee, or agent of the government, or any 35 governmental entity.

1     The joint resolution, if adopted, would be published and 2 then referred to the next general assembly (89th) for adoption
3 a second time, before being submitted to the electorate for 4 ratification.
